

Christine P. Richards

Executive Vice President, General Counsel, and Secretary

Christine P. Richards is responsible for ensuring that FedEx Corp. global activities are in compliance with international, federal, state, and local government regulations, and is responsible for international and domestic legal, security, and government affairs for the corporation and its subsidiaries.

Richards served as corporate vice president — customer and business transactions, before assuming her current position in June 2005. She joined FedEx in 1984 from private practice.

She earned her bachelor's degree from Bucknell University in 1976 and her juris doctorate from Duke University. Richards currently serves as president on the Board of Trustees for the Dixon Gallery and Gardens, on the Board of Visitors for the Fuqua School of Business at Duke University, and on the board of the State Collaborative on Reforming Education.

